Happy Summer,

Just a short one this month. Hope everyone is enjoying their summer. We are finally getting nice weather and starting dry out from our soggy spring.

Don’t forget on August 24th at 11:00am is the ASSE annual picnic at Teason Woods (south east corner of 104th and Rt 83). The flyer for the newsletter is in this month’s newsletter. Please let your co-workers, family all know and invite them to join us.

Please check the ASSE International’s offer a free standard with any renewal or new International membership. This is a great offer.

Speaking of memberships - it would be wonderful if every member could bring one new member in to the Illinois Chapter of ASSE.

We are looking for someone to host our next general meeting and class. We will be offering a class that will give 2 hours of CEU time - if anyone has a suggestion please forward their contact information to this e-mail address.

Hope to see everyone one August 24th.

Fraternally yours,

Denis Riordan ASSE Illinois Chapter President

See You at the Picnic!
ASSE International
NOW OFFERING FREE STANDARDS
FOR NEW AND RENEWING MEMBERS

ASSE International is pleased to announce that members now receive one free standard per year. Starting today, when new members join ASSE, or existing members renew their membership, they will receive a coupon code good for one free standard from the ASSE International webstore, redeemable on any downloadable product performance or professional qualifications standard valued up to $60.

“The idea of offering one free standard per year was recommended to us by members at our first ASSE Membership Working Group Meeting, held last October at the 2018 ASSE International Annual Meeting in Fort Lauderdale,” said Tricia Megee, Manager of ASSE Membership Programs and Activities. “We’re committed to growing our membership and providing tangible, helpful benefits to our professional members, so we’re pleased to be able to announce that free standards are now a benefit of ASSE International membership.”

To gain access to one free ASSE standard per year, along with other benefits such as discounts on ASSE International publications, networking and educational opportunities, and free subscriptions to Working Pressure magazine and the ASSE International eNewsletter, join or renew your ASSE International membership today at http://www.assewebstore.com/membership.
